Once you read the Lenten practice, place the cross in the basket on the altar railing and carry out the practice. The next week, when you have done the practice, place a paper flower, on the large Lenten cross. By the end of Lent our Cross will have "blossomed" into a beautiful cross of flowers, a visual sign of our Lenten sacrifices, prayers and practices, offered in reparation for our sins and the sins of the world.

Our condolences to Roxanne Navratil and her family on the passing of her mother, Alice Stemmler.

DISPENSATION FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY, MARCH 17, 2023

All who make use of this dispensation are obliged in conscience to undertake another work of charity, exercise of piety, or an act of comparable penance that day. Given at the Diocesan Chancery, Norwich, Connecticut, on this 28th Day of February in the year of Our Lord 2023.

THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL- THE EUCHARIST, DID YOU KNOW?

What does it mean to call this a "substantial" presence? To identify this as a "substantial" presence adopts the substance /accidents terminology used by Medieval Christians theologians like Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274). The terms themselves date back to the Greek philosopher Aristotle (384-322 BC) who was a student of Plato and a teacher of Alexander the Great. He wrote on many different subjects, including physics, metaphysics, poetry, theater, music, logic, rhetoric, politics, government, ethics, biology and zoology. He coined the terms to explain how, for example, a thing could remain what it was essentially (e.g., a dog) and yet have many different characteristics (e.g., a variety of colors, weights types of ears, tails, teeth, etc.). *Used with permission from God's Real Presence, by Steve Mueller. Since 2002, the Catholic Church in the U.S.A. has followed a set of rules initiated by the bishops of the country and approved by the Vatican for dealing with sexual abuse of minors by priests or deacons: The Essential Norms for Diocesan/Eparchial Policies Dealing with Allegations of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests or Deacons.

Every U.S. diocese/eparchy is required...

- To have a written policy for dealing with sexual abuse of minors by priests, deacons and other Church personnel
- To appoint a victim assistance coordinator, who is available for the immediate pastoral care of persons who report having been sexually abused as a minor by a priest or deacon
- To report allegations concerning child sexual abuse to civil authorities and to cooperate with the civil investigations
- To establish a review board of at least five persons, mostly members of the laity, who counsel the bishop on allegations and review local policies dealing with sexual abuse of minors
- To investigate promptly and objectively any allegation of sexual abuse of minors by a priest or deacon
- To remove offending priests or deacons permanently from Church ministry
- To prohibit the transfer of offending priests or deacons for ministerial assignment in another diocese or eparchy
- To receive necessary background information before permitting a priest or deacon to exercise ministry in a diocese or eparchy
- To protect the rights of accusers and of the accused

The Disabled American Veterans are dedicated to a single purpose: empowering Veterans to lead high quality lives with respect and dignity. We accomplish this by making sure Veterans and their families can access the full range of benefits available to them; fighting for the interest of America's injured heroes on Capitol Hill and educating the public about the great sacrifices and needs of Veterans returning to civilian life.
