WOMEN'S RETREAT WEEKEND JUNE 2-4, 2023. HOLY FAMILY PASSIONIST RETREAT CENTER, W. Hartford CT 860-760-9705. Theme: A Missing Peace. Peace is something we crave and seek, but rarely find for more than a short time. Through our prayer, presentations, and discussions, we can come closer to understanding how to achieve the peace that Jesus meant for us to have and to share with our families and our world. The retreat begins with a buffet dinner 6-7:30 pm on Friday and concludes Sunday with the celebration of Mass at 10:45 am followed by brunch. Our retreat representative is Jeanne Monty. Two women from St. Philip will be attending, so far.

Join us Sunday mornings for the Children's Rosary Prayer Group at 8:30 am. Led by children, the Rosary is a powerful prayer, second only to the Mass. Our Lady wants our children and parishioners to know how to pray and experience the powerful strength and graces of the Rosary. The group is geared for those 3 -15 years old, but all are welcome. Bring your Rosary or use one provided. Text Donna @ 860-617-8567 for info.

"The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is trust." (St. Faustina Diary 1578)

On Divine Mercy Sunday, we will gather to recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

Jesus said to St. Faustina that He wanted to make this Feast Day a special refuge and shelter for the consolation of souls. Please join us as we proclaim, "Jesus, I trust in you."

THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL- THE EUCHARIST,

DID YOU KNOW? But what about the accidents of the bread and wine? The change in the substance does not affect the accidents at all. After the consecration, the shape, color, taste- everything except the substance- remains exactly the same. There is no way by analyzing the bread and wine for example though chemistry or atomic analysis, to discover any difference. So we cannot just "take a good look" at the consecrated bread and wine and conclude that they have undergone a change of substance. Only our "eyes of faith" can perceive the change. As St. Francis of Assisi reminds us, "Just as Christ appeared before the holy apostles in true flesh, so now he has us see him in the sacred bread. Looking at him with the eyes of their flesh, they saw only his flesh, but regarding him with the eyes of the spirit, they believed that he was God. In like manner, as we see bread and wine with our bodily eyes, let us see and believe firmly that it is his most holy body and blood, true and living." St. Cyril of Jerusalem also teaches us that "Since Christ himself said in reference to the bread: 'This is my body,' who will dare remain hesitant? And since with equal clarity he asserted: 'This is my blood,' who will dare entertain any doubt and say that this is not his blood? You have been taught these truths. Imbued with the certainty of faith, you know that what seems to be bread is not bread but the body of Christ, although it seems to be bread when tasted. You also know that what seems to be wine is not wine but the blood of Christ although it does taste like wine." Used with permission from God's Real Presence, by Steve Mueller. # Every U.S. diocese/eparchy is required...

- To have a written policy for dealing with sexual abuse of minors by priests, deacons and other Church personnel
- To appoint a victim assistance coordinator, who is available for the immediate pastoral care of persons who report having been sexually abused as a minor by a priest or deacon
- To report allegations concerning child sexual abuse to civil authorities and to cooperate with the civil investigations
- To establish a review board of at least five persons, mostly members of the laity, who counsel the bishop on allegations and review local policies dealing with sexual abuse of minors

- To investigate promptly and objectively any allegation of sexual abuse of minors by a priest or deacon
- To remove offending priests or deacons permanently from Church ministry
- To prohibit the transfer of offending priests or deacons for ministerial assignment in another diocese or eparchy
- To receive necessary background information before permitting a priest or deacon to exercise ministry in a diocese or eparchy
- To protect the rights of accusers and of the accused
